

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

The City Of Augusta

Proclamation

IN RECOGNITION of “India Day 2004”

WHEREAS, India Day is set aside to maintain harmony and unity amongst the Indian community without regard to their religious affiliations and is also committed to enhance the process of integration of American citizens of Indian origin within the American society; and

WHEREAS, the Indo-American Cultural Association is organizing India Day, a cultural and educational program for the Central Savannah River Area to be held August 28, 2004, at Augusta State University's Maxwell Theatre; and

WHEREAS, the object of this celebration is to expose Indian culture in the spirit of unity within our community. Included in this celebration will be a colorful exhibition of ethnic and cultural displays, Indian food and Indian dances; and

WHEREAS, I wish to commend members of the Indo-American Cultural Association for their endeavors on behalf of the citizens of our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Young, Mayor of Augusta, Georgia, do hereby proclaim August 28, 2004, to be “INDIA DAY” and ask all citizens to join in this observance of the 57th Anniversary of Independence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Augusta, Georgia, to be affixed this 28th day of August 2004.

Mayor
